

NUTRI-WEST[®]

“When You Want The Best”

Supplements as natural as the sources from which they come.

NUTRI-WEST is a nutritional supplement company whose fundamental focus is to help healthcare professionals optimize the well being of their patients. We maintain an absolute commitment to product quality, purity and efficacy. Products are sold only through licensed healthcare professionals.

Proprietary product lines include those researched and formulated by Dr. John Brimhall (Total line), Dr. Dan Murphy (Complete line) and the late Dr. Alan Beardall (Core Level line). Nutri-West also sponsors a regular series of professional seminars on nutritional support for a variety of health care practices and methods.
